

The Gazette of India

EXTRAORDINARY

PART I—Section 1

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY

No. 28] NEW DELHI, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1954

MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY

PUBLIC NOTICE

IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 9th February 1954

SUBJECT.—Import of glass beads and false pearls falling under S.No. 252/IV during January—June, 1954.

No. 10-ITC (PN)/54.—According to the announcement already made in the Public Notice No. 160-ITC (P.N.)/53, dated 30th December 1953 import of glass bangles, glass beads, and false pearls falling under Serial No. 252/IV is not allowed during the licensing period January—June 1954.

2. Various representations have been received from the trade against the ban on the import of glass beads and false pearls. These representations have been considered and it has been decided to allow import of some of these items during the current licensing period, as indicated in the table below. The entries refer to Appendix 'A' to the Red Book for the period January—June 1954 :—

Part and S. No. of the I.T. C. Schedule	Description	Licensing authority	Policy for Estab- lised Im- porters	Validity of licences	Remarks
1	2	3	4	5	6
252/IV	Glass bangles, glass beads and false pearls.	I. T. C.	10 percent	6 months	(i) Licences will not be valid for import of glass beads whose c.l.f. price is 3 Sh. or less per lb. (ii) Not more than 25 per- cent of the face value of the licences can be utilised for import of hollow (gilded or silvered) beads.

1	2	3	4	5	6
					(iii) Licences issued under this Serial number will not be valid for import of (i) plastic pearls and (ii) glass bangles.

2. Applications for import licences should be made to the licensing authorities in the prescribed form and manner not later than 31st March, 1954.

B. K. KOCHAR, Dy. Secy.